

The Daily Courant.

Friday, August 3. 1705.

From the Paris Gazette, dated July 25.

Madrid, July 10.

LETTERS of the 28th of last Month from Cazeres, tell us, the Enemy's Army that were on the Frontier of Spain, are retir'd towards Elvas. The King's Troops have likewise begun to go into Quarters; the French Foot, and some Battalions of Spaniards, are quarter'd in Almendraleio, Coria, and Plasencia; the rest of the Spanish Foot is quarter'd in Badajoz, Merida, Montija, Cazar, Arroy, Garrobillas, and Brocas. The Marquis de Puysegur, with several other General Officers, is come hither, to consult about the Autumn Campaign, for which great Preparations are made. The Troops are drawing together in the Neighbourhood of this City, whither several Regiments of Foot and Horse are come, and are in a very good Condition. The Queen's Regiment, that of Asturias, and that of Milan, are on the March hither; and there are also on the March from Estramadura 6 Regiments of Horse, 3 French, whereof 1 is Dragoons, and 3 Spaniards.

Madrid, July 12. The Council of the Dispatches, is reduc'd to Three Persons; who are, the Ambassador of France, the Duke de Montellano, and the Marquis of Mansera. We are assur'd French Paymasters will be appointed to pay the Spanish Troops, after the Manner those of France are paid; and that necessary Sums of Money for that Service will be furnish'd by the Contrivance of Monsieur d' Orry: 'Tis pretended that by this Means the Army will be better paid than it has been hitherto, and will be enabled to take the Field the sooner. Monsieur d' Amelot, Ambassador of France, has notified his Arrival at the Court of Madrid to all the forreign Ministers; which his Predecessors had not done since King Philip came to the Crown. This makes it generally believ'd he will make a publick Entry. From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated July 31.

Venice, July 18. The Elector of Bavaria, has this Week receiv'd Expresses from his Electoral Highness in the Low Countries, and a Remittance of a considerable Sum of Money. 'Tis advis'd from Ferrara, that the French have quitted Mezola. General Co'monero has caus'd Intrenchments to be made about Cremona, in order to turn the Water into the Ditches of that Place, if the Imperialists (who are said to be 35000 Men strong,) approach it. We have receiv'd Advice, that Soncino, in which the French had great Magazines, having been attack'd by a strong Detachment of Imperialists, has been taken in 3 Days: The Garrison were made Prisoners of War; but 'tis said Prince Eugene of Savoy has caus'd 200 Spaniards or Natives of the Milaneze to be set at Liberty, upon their Promise never agen to bear Arms against the Emperor.

From the Brussels Gazette, dated July 17.

Milan, June 26. The Prince and Princess of Vaudemont are inconsolable for the Death of the Prince d' Elbeuf, who was lately kill'd before Chivas. They write from Ferrara that Processes are carrying on against the Inhabitants of that Province, who in Disobedience to the Pope's Orders for observing the Neutrality, committed Hostilities against the French. The Maltese Galleys have taken in the Height of the Island of Ponfa a Corsair of Barbary, and on board it 50 Turks Slaves, and were in Pursuit of 2 others.

From the last Antwerp Courant, July 31.

Luxembourg, July 27. Three Regiments of Foot are march'd from hence to reinforce the Garrison of Namur. The Advices we have receiv'd here by the Way of Switzerland, from Piemont and Lombardy, give us Ground to believe the next News we have from thence will be of a Battle between the Duke of Vendome and Prince Eugene of Savoy.

Philipville, July 29. Upon the Enemy's having forc'd the Lines, all the Troops that were in this Town and the Garrisons of the other Places between the Sambre and Maese, are marching to Namur and Charleroy. Several Vessels are laden with Ammunition at Maubeuge, which 'tis believ'd are design'd for Namur.

London, August 2.

Last Night about 9 a Clock, a Mail arriv'd here from Lisbon, the News by it is of the 18th of July O. S. when the Fleet under the Command of the Earl of Peterborough was under Sail. Charles the 3d. King of Spain was on Board the Renelaw, and betwixt 10 and 12000 Men were on Board the Fleet, and when join'd with those from Gibraltar will be 14000 Men effective: The Ships that sail'd from Pimouth with Sir George Bing and were off Ushant with him, for whose Convoy he detach'd 3 Men of War, arriv'd at Lisbon the 16th 2 Days before my Lord Peterborough sail'd. They came seasonably, having on Board several Things wanted for the Expedition.
